India Development & Relief Fund (IDRF) is a non-profit organization which has enabled thousands of donors in the USA who wish to contribute to various development, relief and rehabilitation efforts in India. IDRF's mission is to support volunteer-based, honest and highly experienced non-governmental organizations (NGOs) serving populations' critical needs around education, healthcare, and welfare, without regard to religion, caste or creed. During the past decade IDRF has raised fourteen million dollars in assistance and directly benefited tens of thousands of disadvantaged children, women, and tribal Indians.
