Dear Friends,

What a year it has been! With your support, tens of thousands of individuals have been empowered to lift themselves from poverty and injustice. From Gujarat to Arunachal Pradesh, your contribution has served as the building blocks for children to get a proper education, for communities to recover from disaster, and for villages to access clean water. For all of this and much more, we deeply thank you.

Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi has reenergized the Indian-American community. Improving quality of life is an enormous challenge, and also an enormous opportunity. He emphasized the need to make sustainable development a universal reality. For those still living in poverty, you can bring a positive change to their life.

Your donation helps IDRF put power—not charity—in the hands of underprivileged people in India and Nepal. Continue your support! This makes our work possible.

Sincerely,
Dr. Vinod Prakash
President, IDRF

“This is the most efficient and well run foundation I have donated to. They select projects where they can make a difference and have remarkable outcomes.”

Health

Our partners are always a step ahead! Even before Prime Minister Modi called for action, IDRF’s partners were working to improve sanitation. To date, they have built 1,000 toilet facilities for poor families in Gujarat and Andhra Pradesh. Because of you, these families now enjoy the dignity of proper hygiene and improved health.

Good Governance

In Bihar and Karnataka, our programs have educated people about their right to receive information and services from the government. As a result, communities are empowered, and are holding governments accountable. Campaigns have brought attention to corruption, including over 30,000 reports of bribery. Give to IDRF, and join the fight for good governance!

“Great service, low overheads and availability of many large and small but high quality social organizations in India... A wonderful platform for good!” — Avinash Gore, donor

Education

IDRF’s partners increase access to education among marginalized communities. Your support has helped to educate 70 girls from the most impoverished tribal villages of Northeastern India. These girls study and reside at one of India’s best senior high schools. The school blends quality education with Indian cultural values. Your gift helps these girls to complete their studies, and reach their dreams.

Women’s Empowerment

Development often starts small. Our women’s empowerment project in Haryana began ten years ago with only 10 villages. Today, it supports 100 villages, and 10,000 women.

These women can now provide for their families. They are respected members of their community. You can make sure this growth continues!
